From President T Jablanski
Good Morning Ladies,

I hope this email finds you well.
Has your club registered for the GFWC National Day of Service?

GFWC Massachusetts and many of our clubs here have already registered to participate. Thank YOU!
Join your fellow clubs and club women and help us address food insecurity. Everything you need to start is in the attached NDS documents.

All you have to do is contact:
Melanie Gisler, GFWC Membership Director: mgisler@gfwc.org and let her know that your club will be participating. It's that easy.

If you have any questions, feel free to give me a call or text.

I am excited to share with you the Pearls & Petals Auction Raffle flyer.

I have already seen a few of the items that will be up for auction. WOW! We have such tremendous talent among us and i am so thankful that they are sharing it with us.
By donating to the auction, you will be helping clubs across the commonwealth to promote and support much needed mental health awareness in their communities.

If you have any questions, Nancy Coughlin and Mary Kemp, my president's special project chairman will be overseeing the auction. The deadline for submitting items is: October 13, 2023. I can't wait for Fall Meeting so I can see all of the collective talent of our members. Thank you so much for your support!

Speaking of support, our GFWC Massachusetts headquarters secretary Diane Erickson was recently crowned Ms Massachusetts Senior America 2023. Congratulations!!

Diane is looking to compete for the title of Ms Senior America in Atlantic City NJ on October 15-19 2023.

She is holding a fundraiser on August 20, noon at J. Anthony's Grill in Oxford MA. Please join us in supporting her journey for the title of Ms Senior America! See attached flyer for more details.

That's all for now.

I wish you and your members a restful, healthy, and productive August.

Peace,

T Jablanski
