ADVANCEMENT PLAN

By fundraising, you add
“sparkle” to your community,
club, and members.

“ONLY BY GIVING ARE YOU ABLE TO RECEIVE MORE THAN YOU ALREADY HAVE.”

— Jim Rohn

Fundraising is beneficial to your community, your club, and its members. Raising capital for a local project, recognized charity, affiliate organization, your club's outreach plans and operations, or GFWC Designated Funds is also an opportunity to make the achievements of your club known throughout the community. As they work together on a fundraiser, club members learn new skills and much more. Successful teamwork fosters cooperation, provides a sense of accomplishment, cultivates pride and ownership in the organization, and creates life-long friendships—all while building a stronger and better club.

PROJECT IDEAS:

Fight Identity Theft

The Coronado Woman's Club (CA) held shredding events in the parking lot of a local bank. The people who came were happy to see their documents shredded in front of them, and the club was happy to help the community. The cost for people to participate in the shredding event was $7 per box, and the club raised $750 total.

"Oh, the Places You Will Go"

The Village Improvement Association of Rehoboth Beach (DE) developed a fundraising and wellness project for fellow members during COVID-19. This program encouraged members to walk, run, swim, or bicycle. Each member was encouraged to keep an accurate recorded log of the miles covered. They also asked family, friends, and business owner partners to sponsor miles successfully traveled. Eighty-three members and four non-members participated. The member who traveled the most miles each month was awarded $75. In total, the club raised $10,556 and traveled 4,488 miles.

Speedy Fill and Squeaky Clean – Service Station Attendants

GFWC Papillion Junior Woman's Club (NE) partnered with a local convenience store and volunteered as gas pump attendants on Saturdays for a month. The club members pumped gas and cleaned windshields for customers. The convenience store owner donated one cent for every gallon of gas sold during the month, and customers donated by placing money in a decorated container.

What's The B-U-Z-Z? – Adult Spelling Bee

GFWC Murray Woman's Club (KY) sponsored an adult spelling bee. Teams of three paid an entry fee to participate. Others in attendance paid an admission fee. Teams could purchase a "spell-again" or pay to pass on a word (prices were lower if purchased in advance). In the first three rounds, an eliminated team could pay to re-enter the bee.

STEPS TO SUCCESSFUL FUNDRAISING AND DEVELOPMENT

RESEARCH AND FOLLOW THE APPLICABLE LAWS

Charitable fundraising is regulated in most states. Nonprofit organizations are usually required to register with the state PRIOR to fundraising or soliciting donations and to renew or update that registration periodically. The government official responsible for processing charitable solicitation registrations varies (e.g., Attorney General, Secretary of State, or others). Some states do not allow certain types of fundraisers or contests. Some states have reporting requirements after the fundraisers. It is important to know and follow the law that applies to your fundraising and development efforts. Consider organizing a program or workshop and inviting speakers to explain the relevant regulations.

APPOINT A CAPABLE FUNDRAISING AND DEVELOPMENT CHAIRMAN

Appoint an energetic and enthusiastic Fundraising and Development Chairman to plan, organize, and add sparkle to your fundraising and development. A team effort is required for successful fundraising and development, and the Chairman is the leader of that team. The Fundraising and Development Chairman should be:

- Energetic and enthusiastic,
- Organized,
- Experienced at setting and meeting goals and objectives,
- Skilled at delegating tasks and monitoring progress on projects,
- Responsible for matching the many tasks to be accomplished with skills, interests, and comfort level of each member.

SET GOALS AND OBJECTIVES

Keep in mind that a great fundraising and development program can have multiple great outcomes for your club and its mission, including increased public awareness, good will, and membership. Fundraisers are excellent publicity, networking, and membership opportunities. Set goals for maximum impact.

- Evaluate your financial needs.
- Establish your ongoing and specific projects.
- Estimate expected earnings/outcome of the fundraiser.
- Define the desired impact for the community.

PLAN ALL ASPECTS AND FACETS OF YOUR FUNDRAISING AND DEVELOPMENT PROGRAM

“Good fortune is what happens when opportunity meets with planning” – Thomas Edison

Once your research is done, your leader is in place, and your goals and objectives are set, it is time for your members to brainstorm and plan every detail of how you will conduct the fundraising and development needed to sustain your club or State Federation and those causes that are a priority for your members.

- What type of fundraising?
- Which chairmen and committees are needed?
- What is the budget?
- What type of cooperation is needed from?
 - Local Leaders
 - Businesses
 - Civic Groups
- What is the timeline?
- What is the plan for Marketing and Publicity?

EVALUATE YOUR EFFORTS AND SHOW APPRECIATION TO THE COMMUNITY

“Fundraising is the gentle art of teaching the joy of giving.” — HANK ROSSO

After any fundraiser, take time to evaluate what worked and what did not. The Chairman should prepare a written report on the success of the fundraiser.

- After any fundraiser, take time to evaluate what worked and what did not.
- The Chairman should prepare a written report on the success of the fundraiser.
 - Distribute a survey to the members and compile the results in the report.
 - Include Profit/Loss information (expenses and income).
- Is this same fundraiser recommended for the future?
 - If so, what adjustments need to be made for greater success?
 - If not, did this fundraiser spark interest in other or similar fundraisers that might be more successful?
- Were the goals realistic and achievable?
- Was the budget adequate?
- Was the cooperation with all entities beneficial and constructive?
- Were the publicity/marketing strategies effective?
- Was the fundraiser well-received by the community?
- Were members assigned to tasks that matched their skills and interests? Is this same fundraiser recommended for the future? If so, what adjustments need to be made for greater success? If not, did this fundraiser spark interest in other or similar fundraisers that might be more successful?

GRATITUDE AND APPRECIATION — CELEBRATE!

Remember to maintain the friendly and positive tone of your fundraising efforts until the last expression of gratitude is conveyed. All donations should be acknowledged in a gracious and timely manner and all funds used efficiently for the cause for which they were solicited. Be sure to communicate the successful results of your fundraising project with all those who supported your efforts and with the public. Build on your success to realize an even more successful project in the future.

After evaluating your effectiveness, thanking the members of the community for supporting your efforts, and writing a comprehensive report, it is time to celebrate your success.

There are endless ways to show your appreciation to community entities and your members:

- A small bottle of hand soap or sanitizer with a note that reads, “Thanks for getting your hands dirty!”
- A cute tin of candy with a note that says, “Thank you for being so sweet!”
- An article, picture, or some other recognition on social media.
- A handwritten thank-you note.
- A small award or certificate.
- Small get-togethers, such as a pizza party or social gathering.

Money from the fund will allow GFWC to award intimate partner violence survivors with a scholarship, giving them hope for a better tomorrow. The GFWC Success for Survivors Scholarship was created through GFWC's commitment to our Signature Program, to change the lives of survivors as they take the next step in reshaping their future in a positive way through higher education. For nearly half a century, GFWC has fought to eliminate domestic violence, and the establishment of this fund is one way that GFWC moves towards achieving that goal.
