Provide narrative to answer the 3 questions below. Entries must be typed, double-spaced, and no more than one (1) additional page may be attached to this form to complete the responses.

Part I: How does your Club President use her leadership skills to connect your members and their activities to the work of GFWC and GFWC Massachusetts?

Suggestions: Submitted Club Participation form and Club Statistical form in January 2022; attends State Meetings and brings back information to the club; shares TOPICS and The BEAT of the Federation communications with members, encourages the club to support the current President's focus area, Domestic and Sexual Violence Awareness and Prevention.

Part II: How does your Club President demonstrate strong leadership at your club meetings?

Suggestions: Uses a variety of communication tools for connecting with and reaching out to club members (especially during the pandemic), distributes printed agendas for club meeting, listens to clubmembers, helps all members of your club feel they have a voice in the activities of the club and engages them to participate.

Part III: Briefly describe why your Club President deserves the recognition of this award.
