Laura Russell, Director of Volunteer Development

501 St. Jude Place | Memphis, Tenn. 38105

E: laura.russell@stjude.org

P: 1-800-822-6344

St. Jude Children’s Research Hospital is leading the way the world understands, treats and defeats childhood cancer and other deadly diseases. Everything the organization does is centered on finding cures and saving children. And families never receive a bill from St. Jude, continuing the vision of its founder, Danny Thomas, that no child is denied treatment based on race, religion, or a family's ability to pay. By sharing our knowledge freely and exchanging ideas openly, St. Jude inspires more collaboration between doctors and researchers worldwide, and, as a result, more lifesaving treatments for children everywhere. Treatments invented at St. Jude have helped push the overall childhood cancer survival rate from 20 percent to 80 percent since it opened 50 years ago.

➤ The Nature Generation - Partner

<http://www.natgen.org>

Contact:

Jenny Schmidt

3434 Washington Blvd, 2nd Floor, AC 2189 | Arlington, VA 22201

E: jschmidt@natgen.org

P: 703-284-6059

The Nature Generation inspires and empowers young people to make a difference through environmental stewardship programs in literature and science. It encourages community members — especially young people — to learn about nature and care for the environment. Its programs connect youth with the outdoors, promote learning about nature through books, and foster environmental curiosity and knowledge all with the belief that young people who grow up aware of their footprint become the true environmental stewards of the future.

31255 Cedar Valley Drive, Suite 327 | Westlake Village, CA 91362

E: ShivelyS@HOBY.org

P: 818-851-3980 ext. 321

Founded in 1958, HOBY's mission is to inspire and develop our global community of youth and volunteers to a life dedicated to leadership, service, and innovation. For more than five decades, HOBY has been inspiring young people to make a difference and become catalysts for positive change in their home, school, workplace, and community. HOBY also provides adults with opportunities to make a significant impact on the lives of youth by volunteering. More than 4,000 committed HOBY volunteers plan and execute the programs each year. Due to the selfless efforts of volunteers and the contributions of generous donors, nearly 10,000 students participate in HOBY programs annually.

➤ Sew Much Comfort - Partner

<http://www.sewmuchcomfort.org/>

Contact:

*Michele Cuppy, President and CFO
13805 Frontier Lane | Burnsville, MN 55337
E: mmc.cuppy@comcast.net
P: 952-236-7300*

Sew Much Comfort provides adaptive clothing to support the unique needs of our wounded service personnel members, including all branches of the military and national guard. Unfortunately, standard clothing does not properly fit with fixators, prosthetics, and casts. For many, a hospital gown is the only option. SMC adapts store-bought or sewn clothing using our custom-designed patterns. The clothing is designed to appear as normal civilian clothing, and is constructed for ease of dressing, fostering self-care. Most of all, it is a symbol of gratitude for their sacrifice. Sew Much Comfort is the only organization providing adaptive clothing at no cost to our wounded service members.
