Epsilon Sigma Omicron is an honorary educational society open to all GFWC members. ESO provides clubwomen with a structured reading program that is both educational and Stimulates a desire for self-improvement. ESO materials are available on the GFWC Website.

Suggested Activities for Club ESO Participation

- Create a club book group and refer to the ESO Reading Lists on the GFWC website to choose a topic or book title.
- Encourage members to share what they are currently reading at club meetings.
- Participants should maintain an individual reading log to provide to the GFWC MA ESO Chairman.
- Schedule local authors to present their books at a club meeting.
- Encourage club members to attend author events in the communities at local bookstores.
- Contact the local library and school administration to volunteer services to encourage reading in the classroom and at home.
- Schedule a book drive for both children and adults and suggest the donations be partnered with the local Food Bank.

"Reading is the sole means by which we slip voluntarily, often helplessly, into Another's skin, another's voice, another's soul." Joyce Carol Oates
