MILITARY SEXUAL ASSAULT

BY CARRIE ZIMMERMAN, SOUTHERN REGION

Military sexual assault is the use of force, threats, intimidation, or abuse of authority during sexual contact. It also includes instances where the survivor is unable to consent. Survivors of military sexual assault include both men and women.

A documentary on YouTube #iamvanessaguillen, 20/20 ABC News, led to information of stronger advocacy occurring on Military Sexual Assault. Vanessa Guillen was a soldier in the Army based at Fort Hood in Killeen, TX and went missing on April 20, 2020 from the base. She was killed by a superior officer that was sexually harassing her. Her family and friends used the power of social media to launch advocacy and on January 26, 2022, President Joe Biden signed an executive order to establish sexual harassment as an offense under the Uniform Code of Military Justice—called for by the I Am Vanessa Guillen Act in the 2022 National Defense Authorization Act.

Our GFWC Clubwomen want to know how they can help. Advocacy is a big start. Websites listed below give good ideas on how to bring Military Sexual Assault awareness and advocacy.

CHILD ABUSE
WHAT DO OUR MEMBERS KNOW ABOUT “AGING OUT” OF FOSTER CARE?

When a foster child becomes 18 and leaves the foster care safety umbrella, what will they need? Many still be in high school, these teens find themselves in need of jobs, a place to live, and a means of transportation to survive. We all dream of a foster family willing to continue to provide a safety net and guidance. But many are not so fortunate.

Each year approximately 24,000 American teenagers in foster care turn 18 years old. National studies have shown that within two to four years of leaving foster care at age 18:

- 40% were homeless
- 46% had not finished high school
- 40% were receiving public assistance or were incarcerated
- 40% experienced drug or alcohol abuse
- 51% were unemployed
- 84% became parents

So how can our GFWC Club Members help these youth? Meet with your local foster care agency and then brainstorm how to fill the urgent needs.

The Foster Care Independence Act of 1999 gave states more funding and greater flexibility to provide support to youth transitioning from foster care to independent living. Some youth aging out may choose to continue care and supervision of the child welfare system. These youth experienced better outcomes than those who chose or were forced to leave care.

So, what can my local club do to help?

The best thing one can do for a teen in foster care is to become their mentor. Get involved by connecting with them on a regular basis and helping with anything they need. Often they just need help in filling out forms, applications and deciphering what is wanted.

Clubs can also donate money so that they have the resources they need to fulfill their academic and career potential.

Clubs can offer a scholarship to a child in foster care.

Clubs can become involved with a homeless program. Ie Tumbleweed

Clubs can provide full size toiletries, towels, and linens.
