President's Communications ~ 1 member / 26 hours

The club president of GFWC Crowley Club of Cambridge created informative emails for members. Recent club minutes are circulated to both Board and General Membership and agenda items along with financial reports are included for an upcoming meeting. Thumbnail status updates are also reported as needed and chairwomen are called on to submit reports following their projects. This keeps the membership up to date between meetings and is helpful for the members who do not attend the meeting to be aware of club happenings and offer options for participation.
